DETAILED ACTION

An examination of this application reveals that applicant is unfamiliar with patent prosecution procedure. While an inventor may prosecute the application, lack of skill in this field usually acts as a liability in affording the maximum protection for the invention disclosed. Applicant is advised to secure the services of a registered patent attorney or agent to prosecute the application, since the value of a patent is largely dependent upon skilled preparation and prosecution. The Office cannot aid in selecting an attorney or agent.

A listing of registered patent attorneys and agents is available on the USPTO Internet web site <http://www.uspto.gov> in the Site Index under "Attorney and Agent Roster." Applicants may also obtain a list of registered patent attorneys and agents located in their area by writing to the Mail Stop OED, Director of the U. S. Patent and Trademark Office, PO Box 1450, Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Claim Objections

1. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not). Misnumbered claim [C1] been renumbered 1.

Specification

2. The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.
3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.
4. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.

(d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.

(e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.

(f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.

(1) Field of the Invention.

(2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.

(g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.

(h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).

(i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.

(j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).

(k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).

(l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claim 1 is rejected as failing to define the invention in the manner required by 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

Claim 1 provides for the use of an easy way to beat the budget, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

6. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153

USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 USC 102(b) as being anticipated by Barnes (US 5,970,475).

Barnes teaches all the limitations of claim 1. For example, Barnes discloses and electronic commerce system for procuring goods/services by a plurality of users within an organization to lower acquisition cost. A customer server is connectable to each of said terminals and includes log-on means for providing access to a user by means of one of said terminals only if the user can be properly authenticated by the customer server. A supplier system is used which includes a supplier catalog server for storing data representing a supplier catalog of goods/services that are available for purchase by an authorized user in the customer organization and a supplier processor server for processing orders received from the authorized user within the customer organization. The supplier catalog server and the supplier processor server may be combined into one server. Said supplier system is directly accessible by said customer server through an Internet connection. Security means is provided within said servers which limit transactions to entities that have pre-arranged relationships for displaying supplier catalog information to an authorized user within the customer organization for issuing a purchase order by the user to said supplier system. A bank server may be used that is accessible by the customer server through an Internet connection. Payments to the supplier by the customer organization may optionally be made through said bank server after the goods/services have been delivered to the user and an invoice has been issued to the customer organization. Barnes discloses each user is preferably assigned an organization user profile which specifies a level of authorization for approval of the acquisition of goods/services from a pre-determined supplier. The user terminals include means for displaying products/services available for acquisition from the at least one supplier and is consistent with the user's level of authorization for the acquisition of goods/services from said supplier. The supplier system includes a catalog and an order processor, said catalog containing information regarding all of the suppliers' goods made available to the customer organization, including pricing discounts, availability, delivery information, based on the organization's profile submitted to the supplier and negotiated agreement between the partners. A communication link is provided for selectively accessing, for viewing and downloading by a user, information from the supplier's catalog to the user's terminal consistent with the user's authorization level. The customer and supplier systems are programmed to establish a cryptographically secure session for ordering and filling orders for goods, by means of said order processor from said supplier only when an authorized user seeks to acquire one or more products which the user is authorized to purchase (see at least abstract; Fig. 5, Fig. 6A-B; col. 3, line 5 through col. 4, line 26).
